

I ask that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law protections.

Since we have been on the telephone privacy law protection list, the number of unwanted solicitation calls has been greatly reduced. We used to be bombarded with at least ten (10) to twenty (20) calls weekly and they usually occurred at dinner time. I am very thankful and appreciative that this telephone privacy law is in effect.